

Designing an Experiment

What are we trying to find out? (Research Question)

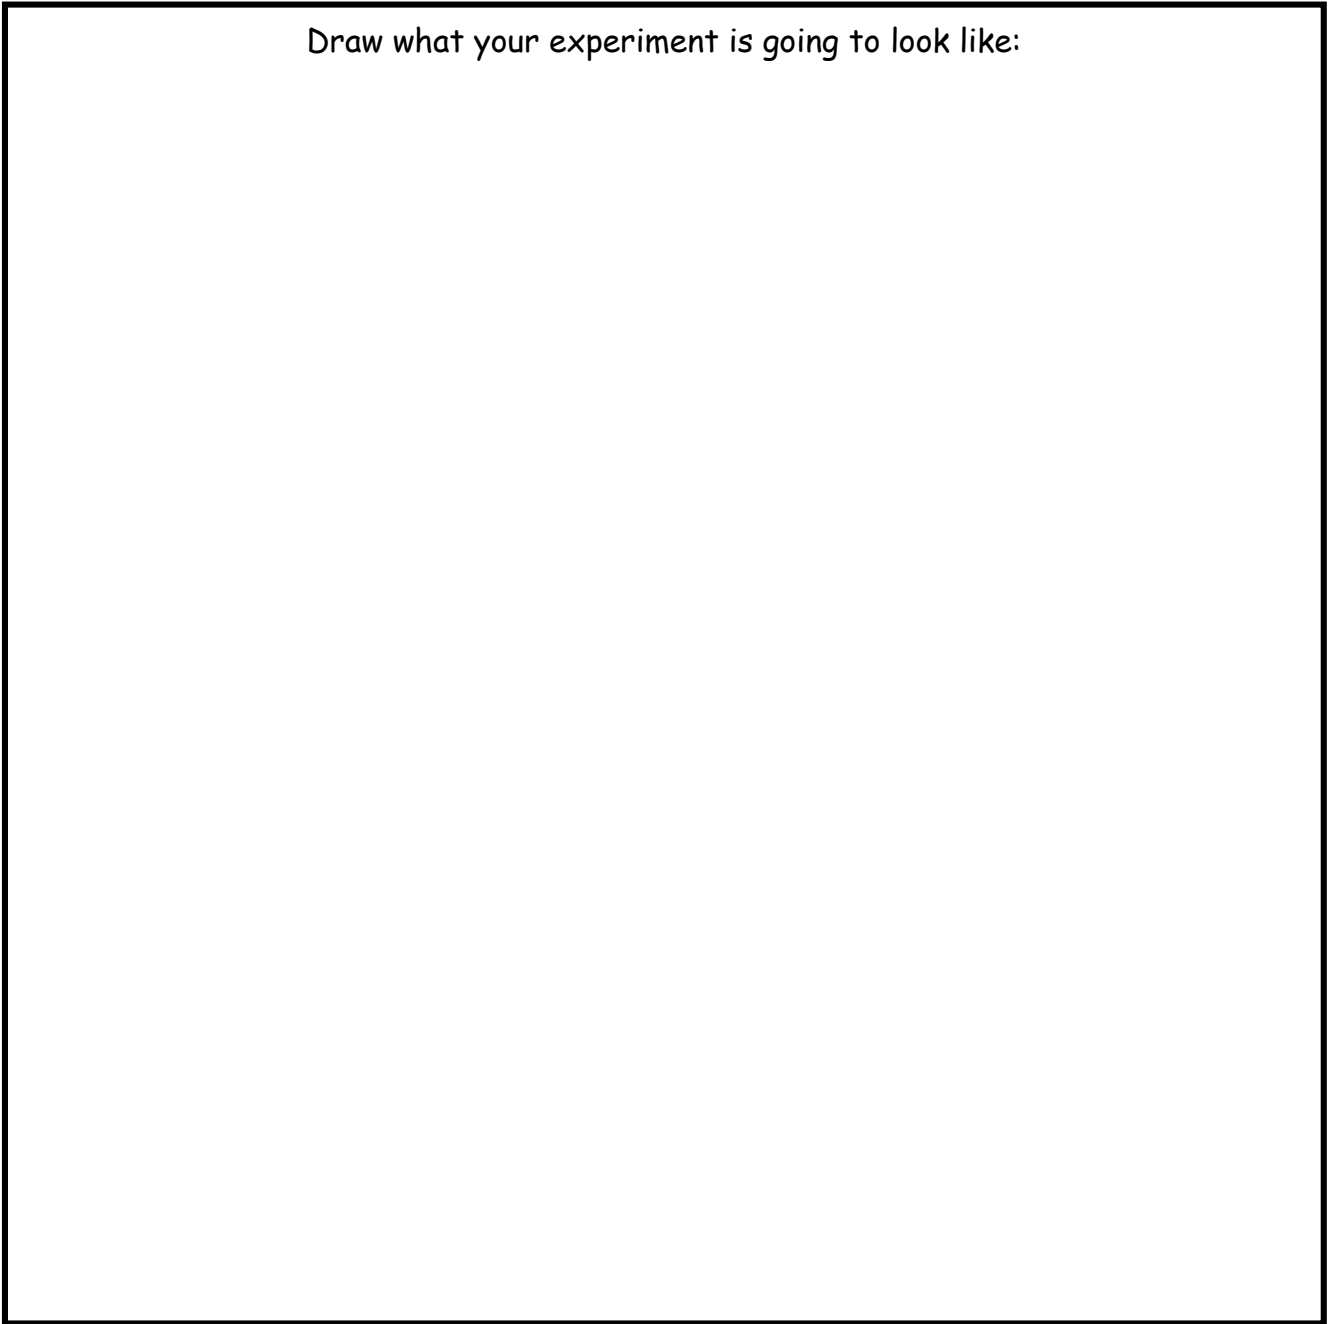

How would we find out the answer to the question above?

How would we measure the results of the test above?

How are we going to record our results?

Designing an Experiment

Draw what your experiment is going to look like:

What materials do you need to do your experiment?

-
-
-