

English - Respond to Reading (2)

Welcome to the wild world of 16th Century Ireland! Strap in and get ready to follow Red Hugh through a wild adventure.

On a working day:

- 1) Listen to the chapter being read.
- 2) Choose one of the activities down below to complete on what you just listened to.
- 3) Complete the activities in your English copy book.

Activities

1. Choose a villain from the story. Write a letter from their point of view explaining why they have acted like this.	2. Imagine your favorite character from the book has been transported to a different book. Create a comic book sequence from a scene in your book.	3. On an a4 page, create the front page of a newspaper from the time of the book. On the paper, write about some of the events in the book.
4. Choose ten key words from the chapter (names, settings, items). Use these words to create a wordsearch.	5. Make a wanted poster for a character from the book. Include information about what they look like and what they act like.	6. Imagine you could send a character in the book a secret gift to help them out. Draw a picture of what you would give them and explain why you have chosen it.
