

English - Respond to Reading (3)

Welcome to the wild world of 16th Century Ireland! Strap in and get ready to follow Red Hugh through a wild adventure.

On a working day:

- 1) Listen to the chapter
- 2) Choose one of the activities down below to complete on what you just listened to.
- 3) Complete the activities in your English copy.

Activities

1. Choose a character from the book. Imagine you wake up and you are them. What 5 things would you do?	2. Draw a character from the book as a baby, a middle-aged person, and an old person. Under each picture write what you think they would be doing.	3. Create a music playlist to go with a character or an event from the story. Choose 3 songs and explain why each one would be relevant beside them.
4. Interview a character from the story for a magazine of your choice. Choose a topic and ask them 3 questions for them to answer.	5. Place yourself in one of the character's shoes. Write a diary entry of a key moment from the story. Try pick an interesting part of the story.	6. Imagine this chapter was the last chapter of the book. Write the final paragraph to tie up the whole story the way you want it to.