

Chapter 3

In this chapter, we heard some really good descriptions of the rainforest using "Show, Don't Tell". I am going to describe a few different places in detail and I want you try guess where I am thinking of!

The rain was falling on my head. I had left my coat in the classroom so I was soaking. The ball bounced on the black ground in front of me. I kicked it and it went into the goal. 1 nil to my team!

I looked out the window. Traffic everywhere. Inside, every seat was full. I closed my eyes to relax. Suddenly, I heard the DING of the bell. The doors opened shortly afterwards.

The shelves were packed with all sorts of different things. An old woman was filling her basket beside me. I reached up to grab the milk on the top shelf.

Everyone was very excited. I could hear the engines roaring on the other side of the window. In only a few minutes I would be on my way to America for the first time!

The smell of popcorn floated through the air. People lined up to collect their tickets and snacks. We walked straight past them and went through the double doors with "Number 1" over them.
